

Have you always found the work of a consultant interesting, but you have no experience? Don't worry, we'll teach you everything. As part of the project team, you can have an impact on defining new processes and determining the right solutions for our clients. You can observe how the new processes are supported by a properly configured tool, work in favour of the customer. Join us!

Business Consultant with Romanian

Location: Krakow, remote work available

Key Responsibilities:

- Support the application tests and the ongoing software implementations, for our Romania customers
- Confirming functional requirements for new IT solutions and support in their execution
- Work as a 1st line of contact regarding the IT applications already implemented
- Prepare and lead the training in Romania, covering the application usage
- Change management for our clients
- Processing of incoming customer requests to ensure courteous, timely and effective resolution of end user issues

Our ideal candidate:

- Very good knowledge of English and Romanian (Polish language will be an asset),
- Communicative and team player personality
- Knowledge of MS Office Package (Word, Excel, Power Point)
- Ability to work effectively in a team, interpersonal and organizational skills

We offer:

- Participation in projects in a team of specialists managed by the experienced managers
- Opportunity for professional development in project management, access to advanced technologies and modern process optimization techniques
- Interesting work in a professional environment in a dynamically developing company
- Attractive salary and excellent work atmosphere
- Private healthcare package including worldwide travel insurance

Are you interested in this offer?

Apply by e-mail

rekrecja@arc-consulting.pl

Remember to attach the following personal data processing consent:

„I hereby grant consent for the processing of my personal data contained in this CV by ARC Consulting Group sp. z o.o. sp. k. with its registered office at ul. Krolewska 57, 30-081 Krakow (“ARC”) for the purposes of recruitment carried out by ARC. At any time, you may withdraw your consent for processing, but such withdrawal shall not affect the legal compliance of any processing which occurred before you withdrew your consent. ARC does not make any automated decisions regarding the processing of personal data in recruitment process. Detailed information on the processing of your personal data is specified in the Privacy Policy.”

Please note that we will contact only selected candidates.